

K-9 Kingdom is training again...

Beth Mann, our new trainer will begin Sunday, September 30, 2012 offering 2 classes noted below. Class size is limited to 6 handlers and dogs to give each team the attention needed to reach their goals. Classes are 1 hour long and the cost of each 6 class series is $150.00. Training goals will be reached using positive training methods.

Fundamental Behaviors Class

This class will cover needed behaviors for a good house pet or a future therapy dog. The following skills will be taught in class: SIT, DOWN, WATCH, LOOSE LEASH WALKING, STAY, LEAVE IT, GREETING STRANGERS, and COME. Classes will be held every Sunday at 1PM beginning on September 30th. The AKC's Canine Good Citizen test is included in the fee. To acknowledge all of your hard work, the CGC evaluation will be scheduled during an optional 7th class.

Therapy Preparation Class

This class will prepare you and your dog for animal assisted therapy work in schools, hospitals, nursing homes, etc. If you and your best friend enjoy meeting new people and already have some basic obedience skills under your belt, this class will prepare you to take the Pet Partners evaluation (formally Delta Society) and coursework to become a Pet Partners volunteer. The cost of the Pet Partners evaluation is included in the fee. Classes will be held every Sunday at 3:00 PM beginning September 30, 2012.

See Kelli or a staff member to sign up for either class.
